

UK Prime Minister David Cameron visits Common Purpose in Bangalore

Thumbnails Detail Comments

UK Prime Minister, David Cameron, discussed contrasting leadership challenges between the UK and India with emerging talent at a Common Purpose leadership development course in Bangalore.

The Prime Minister met 35 young leaders in Bangalore from the public, private, not-for-profit and community sectors who are participating in a Common Purpose course at Infosys headquarters.

David Cameron participated in the course day, which was themed on the topic 'courage and caution'. The participants in the course have explored contrasting and shared leadership approaches to risk in the current economic climate faced by emerging leaders in the UK and India.
