URGENT

Dear Sirs

ELISH ANGIOLINI QC

We act on behalf of Elish Angiolini QC, the Lord Advocate for Scotland. We enclose a copy of an order granted by the Court of Session on 11th February 2010. An interdict (or injunction in England) has been granted by the Court of Session ad interim against Robert Green or anyone acting on his behalf or his instructions from communicating false and defamatory statements about Graeme Buchanan and harassing Graeme Buchanan by making false defamatory statements.

Your website contains false and defamatory material of our client and Graeme Buchanan. The purpose of this communication is to reiterate that you are hosting defamatory material and to inform you of the terms of the order granted by the Court of Session. The publication of false and defamatory statements and harassment continues with the material contained on your website. The material in question requires to be removed forthwith.

If the footage in question is not removed forthwith then proceedings may be raised for (1) defamation, (2) breach of interdict and (3) harassment. In the UK, harassment constitutes a wrong at civil law and can also be a criminal offence. Reference is made to Sections 2 and 9 of the Protection from Harassment Act 1997.

You should obtain urgent independent legal advice as to your position.

Yours faithfully

PETER WATSON BA LLB SSC
Solicitor Advocate
